

CURRICULUM VITAE

Heyn van Rooyen

Born on the 1st of December 1956 at Ottosdal, North West Province.

Completed school and university studies in Pretoria. Obtained the qualifications BA (Law), BA Hons. (Political Science) and MBA from the University of Pretoria and completed a post-graduate programme in e-commerce at UNISA's School for Business Leadership.

Professional career spans sixteen years in the South African Diplomatic Corps, with assignments in Washington DC as Second Secretary, Montreal as Consul General and Lisbon as Director of the South African Pavilion at the 1998 World Expo. Joined Medihelp's Business Development Unit in 2000 and served since 2001 as Senior Manager: National Sales.

Appointed as Principal Officer at Medihelp on 1 January 2014.

Married to Denette and blessed with two daughters.

Interests and activities: Entrepreneurship, cycling and archery. Member of the Gideons International in South Africa.